COLISEUM READY FOR REPUBLICANS

Chicago Convention Hall Will Be Thrown Open to Roosevelt Delegates June 21.

STAFF OF TEN PHYSICIANS.

Only Contest in Sight Is for Vice-Presidential Nomination—Programme Covers Three Days —Seats for 8,500.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Chicago, June 12.—Practically every day has been arranged and the finishing touches are being made to the Coliseum.
Republican hosts are en route to Chicago.
Monday and next day party leaders will come flocking in to attend the meetings of the National Committee preparatory to the work of the big convention.

A mighty throng with brass bands from every section will follow at the week's end, to cheer the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for the presidency, and to observe the spectacular feature of the quadrilateral session of the national political campaigning.

In a coloring of gold and white, the interior of the Coliseum will be thrown open to delegates, distinguished men of the Republican party and thousands of guests in the forenoon of Tuesday, June 21.
Stodden, handsomely furnished rooms for the National Committee are in readiness for the session, which will begin on Wednesday. In the annex of the Coliseum are the offices of the sergeant-at-arms of the convention and his staff and of the members of the Subcommittee on arrangements. These offices and headquarters of the National Committee are on the second floor.

TO HAVE MEDICAL STAFF.
On the first floor a large inclosed space has been allotted to the medical staff, which will consist of ten physicians and surgeons, who will be detailed as assistant surgeons-at-arms. This preparation for sudden illness in the gathering of thousands is an innovation.

In the Coliseum proper every detail to add to the convenience of delegates guests and convention workers has been installed. The arrangements for seating every seat in the building desirable.

The seating capacity is 8,500 in round numbers, and of the 4,500 seats 3,000 have been reserved for delegates and two representatives from Porto Rico are admitted will be occupied by delegates and the same number will be used by alternates. The delegates and alternates will be in the central body of the hall.

The platform for the officers of the convention and members of the National Committee is midway between the north and south ends of the building. Back of the platform is a raised stage for 27 distinguished guests. The press platform surrounding the officers' platform and other press seats in sections at either end of the distinguished guests' stage will furnish accommodations for 200 working newspaper men. The remaining seats on the main floor and those in the reservations boxes and galleries will be for the general public.

VICE PRESIDENT ONLY CONTEST.
It is assumed that the only real contest in the convention proper will come over the naming of a Vice President, and that may not be at all spirited. On this assumption the programme of the convention is being planned.

Tuesday, June 21.—Convention called to order at noon by Henry C. Payne, acting chairman. The first business of the day will be the reading of the call. Introduction of the temporary chairman, probably former Secretary of the Convention at Omaha, William H. Flory, who will sound the "keynote." Appointment of committees on Credentials, Permanent Organization, Rules and Order of Business and Resolutions.

Wednesday, June 22.—Report of Committee on Credentials and Committee on Permanent Organization, followed by speech of the permanent chairman, probably Speaker Cannon. Reports of the Committee on Rules and Order of Business and Resolutions. Nominating and seconding speeches for candidates for President.
Nomination of Theodore Roosevelt.

Thursday, June 23.—Nominating speaking for candidates for Vice President.
Nomination of a candidate for Vice President. Announcement of members of the new National Committee.

The programme may be varied slightly by features outside of the regular routine State delegations will hold caucuses to select members of the various committees and members of the National Committee the day preceding the opening of the convention or on the morning of the first day.

Tragedy Takes Place at Residence

During Man's Visit.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Sikeston, Mo., June 12.—Saturday night between the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock a shooting and suicide without parallel in this county took place here.

Two weeks ago there came to this city Miles Blakely and Annie Clifton, who claimed as their former home Shawnee-town, Gallatin County, Ill. Blakely was employed by the Holly Hauling Company, and the Clifton woman found a position as a servant in the home of Mrs. Stringer.
She gave out the information that Blakely recently was released from the Chester Penitentiary, where he had been serving a fourteen-year sentence for murder committed in Illinois, and that he was generally looked upon where they came from as a dangerous character. She confessed to being afraid of him.

Saturday night Blakely went to the Stringer home and informed Mr. Stringer that he was going to stay all night. Mr.
Stringer told him he could not do so, but Blakely went on to the Stringer home.
Mr. Stringer informed Night Marshal Williamson of the situation, and he and Marshal Kuntz went to the Stringer home to remove the intruder. Marshal Williamson knocked on the door of the room occupied by Blakely and asked that it be opened, saying that he wanted Blakely to come out.

The answer was a bullet, which struck Williamson in the right breast. Only a few words were spoken. Blakely, assuming that he was shot, and Blakely, assuming that he had killed the Marshal and that he would be captured, proceeded to shoot the woman three times.

The last remaining load in the 38-caliber revolver he sent through his own brain.
Death followed about six hours later.

Williamson came downtown for a physician and refused to allow his wounds to be looked after until the doctor had attended the wounded woman. The woman an yet live, but physicians see no hope for her recovery.

The Clifton woman claims they were engaged, and that Blakely wanted her to marry him, but that she was afraid of him, and had put him off from time to time. She says on several occasions he had threatened her life.

Is Considering Offer of Railroad Position on Pacific Coast—Says He Is Out of Politics.

Joseph Flory, who has resigned as secretary of the National Commission of the World's Fair, to take effect on June 15, is considering an offer of a railroad position on the Pacific Coast.

Since his resignation from a position that pays $5,000 a year there has been much speculation concerning the future plans of Mr. Flory. It has been rumored that the former Republican candidate for Governor would move to a Western State about August 1.

Mr. Flory said yesterday:
"I have not yet decided what I will do.
I have three interesting offers; two in St.
Louis, and one on the Pacific Coast. The latter is a railroad position in California.
I do not care to go into further details concerning the offer. I will let you know July 1 what I will do, but I think I will stay in St. Louis. I do not care to specify what positions have been offered to me." If you go West will you go into politics? The former gubernatorial candidate was asked.

"No, I am out of politics. Of course I do not say that I will never enter politics, but I am out of the game for the present."

L. H. Graham of New York is to succeed Mr. Flory as secretary of the National Commission.
